*I walk amongst the stars gazing down on your face. During the gentle sleep you see so little of, I kiss your tears from your cheek and watch you smile with my name on your lips. When the sun rises, I perch on my cloud "Poppin' n Rockin'" to the sound of your voice as you start your day. When you say your prayers, I kneel beside you The warm glow fills you as I Thank God for the time we had. Though it may have been short, To me, we lived a lifetime. When you cry out for me In your desperate times, I whisper in your ear, I am here. I am with you, Always.
Love Chris*
